

I did pass. The best advice that I could give anyone is to take as many of the actual past exams as possible and stick to the 4 hour time limit. Next would be to know where to find the answer - that is why tabbing is very important.